

A thriving cocoa sector for generations to come

Jos de Loor,
CEO / President
Cargill Cocoa & Chocolate

CONFIDENTIAL. This document contains trade secret information. Disclosure, use or reproduction outside Cargill or inside Cargill, to or by those employees who do not have a need to know is prohibited except as authorized by Cargill in writing.
© 2013 Cargill, Incorporated. All rights reserved.

The Cargill Cocoa Promise

Key achievements

A thriving cocoa sector for generations to come.

Farmer training

Key achievements

115,825

farmers trained on good agricultural practices

10

days of training on average per farmer per year

919

extension agents trained to deliver training at Farmer Field Schools

1,955

lead farmers have completed advanced training

Community support

Key achievements

US$939,000

invested in social projects in cocoa-growing communities in 2013

34,000

children provided with improved access to education

37

schools and kindergartens built in cocoa-growing communities

8,720

farmers trained additionally on the issue of child labor

Farm development

Key achievements

19,000

farms applying crop protection

25.3m

seedlings distributed

650

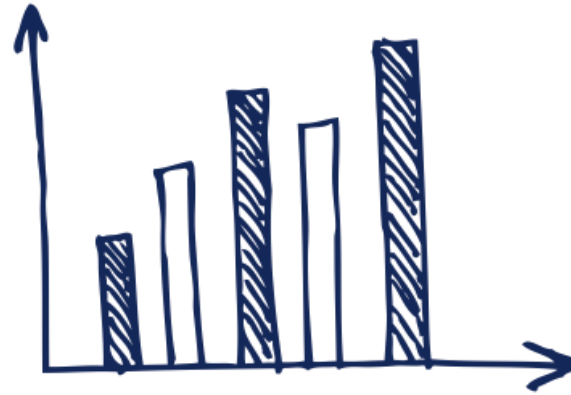

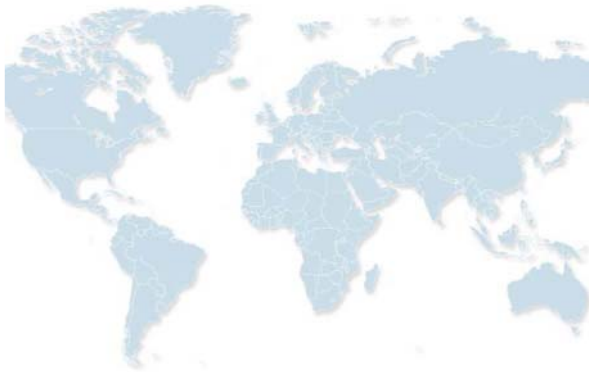

demonstration plots established to demonstrate appropriate use of pesticides and fertilizers

342,209

hectares of farmland certified by independent certification bodies

Empowered cooperatives and farmer organizations.

1 Global approach, acting local

2 Transparency & Measurement

3 Industry Alignment

A thriving cocoa sector for generations to come

The Cargill Cocoa Promise

A stylized illustration of a cocoa leaf, rendered in a dark red color, positioned to the right of the main text.